

SEED Winnipeg Inc.

Junior Facilitator – Money Stories Program

Are you an Indigenous youth aged 15 to 30? Are you passionate about empowering youth and strengthening communities? Join SEED Winnipeg's Money Stories team as a Junior Facilitator and gain hands-on experience in leadership, facilitation, public speaking, and community development.

About the Role

As a Junior Facilitator, you'll co-facilitate engaging and culturally grounded Money Stories sessions for youth in the community. This is a unique opportunity to grow personally and professionally through mentorship from experienced facilitators and Indigenous Elders. Together, we'll co-create meaningful learning experiences that support youth leadership and financial empowerment.

Responsibilities:

- Participate in leadership and facilitation training to prepare for your role
- Co-facilitate Money Stories sessions alongside SEED trainers
- Assist with preparing materials and setting up/cleaning up for sessions
- Help design interactive and engaging activities for participants
- Contribute to the development of promotional materials
- Attend team meetings and debriefings
- Represent the program with professionalism, positivity, and respect

Who We're Looking For:

This is an entry-level, training-focused position—ideal for high school students, recent graduates, or youth new to facilitation, leadership and community development.

You'd Be a Great Fit If You Are:

- Interested in developing your public speaking and facilitation skills
- Excited about working with youth and building community connections
- Dependable, punctual, and eager to take initiative
- A strong communicator with a collaborative mindset
- Open to learning and growing in a supportive team environment
- Familiar with—or willing to learn about—Community Economic Development

Additional Details

- Location: Winnipeg, Manitoba

- Employment Condition: A child abuse registry check is required.
